

Dr.Acula, Say Cheese And Die

We built this city on hate fueled by lust and dishonor the birds are the only ones free they can fly in to the sun and burn it's too late for their familys i'm torching their loved ones the ones they loved so much they'd fuck someone without their wedding band tonight i'm torching this city down the children will cry in joy they already know they're fucked the buildings will fall, the cars will implode, tonight i'm torching this motherfucker down tonight we're torching this mother fucker down
