

Dr. Feelgood, Baby Jump

She wears those micro mini dresses, hair hanging down her back,
She wears those see-through sweaters, she like to wear her stockings black,
And if I see her tonight, you bet your life I'll attack.

She got beautiful teeth, a toothpaste ad-man's dream,
She got beautiful form, the best I've ever seen,
I'm gonna get her tonight, I don't care where she's been.

Well I said, baby baby baby what you doin' to me,
I said baby baby baby what you doin' to me,
I said baby baby baby jump into my dream.

I dreamt that she was Lady Chatterley, and I was the gamekeeper,
I dreamt that I was Da Vinci, and she was the Mona Lisa,
I dreamt that I was Humbert and she was Lolita.

Well I said, baby baby baby what you doin' to me,
I said baby baby baby what you doin' to me,
I said baby baby baby jump into my dream.
