

Dr. Feelgood, Killing Floor

(Chester Burnett)

I should have quit you long time ago
I should have quit you babe, long time ago
I should have quit you, oh, way down to Mexico

Well, if I'd had followed my first mind
If I'd had of followed my first mind
I'd have been long gone, oh, as(?) my second time

- Saxophones Break -

Well, I should have went off when my friend come for Mexico and me
I should have went off when my friend come for Mexico and me
But now I'm through with you babe
Now that you got me quitting on the killing floor

God knows I should have been gone
Oh, God knows, God knows I should have been gone
And I wouldn't a been here down on the killing floor
