Dr Sin, Time After Time

Time after time Living in memories Crossing the line Of reality

Lives passing by Watching my destiny Voices are calling From deep in my mind

Alone in dark I fear the night No words can explain Am I insane?

If I think
Of all the pain
I couldn't make
Me through
Another day
Another way

Where will I find Peace of mind Before my eyes My life slips away Fades away

Wondering why Nothing seems real to me Watching the hands of the Click tick away

It's like a bad dream No one can hear me scream I can't stop the nightmare Have mercy on me
