

Dragonforce, No More

The light is shining
Still I'm not so surprised
One thousand voicemails
For one thousand lies

Blind faith – lost trust
All along it was plain to see
Years passed – lost touch
Leads the path to insanity

Take another shot
Show me what you got
It was never gonna last forever

Open your eyes
Try and realise
Once is enough so tonight now I say

No more!
From a voice that breaks the awkward silence
No more!
Never heard so loud before
Made the same mistakes a thousand times
Never meant to be like this so I say
No more tonight
And it feels all right

Dark nights – long passed
Waking up from a pointless dream
Brighter days – brighter times
Hides the fatal reality

Questions – answers
False addiction to nothing real
Lights fade – crushed to dust
Desperation in tragedy

Take another shot
Show me what you got
It was never gonna last forever

Open your eyes
Try and realise
Once is enough so tonight now I say

No more!
From a voice that breaks the awkward silence
No more!
Never heard so loud before
Made the same mistakes a thousand times
Never meant to be like this so I say
No more tonight
And it feels all right

No more
Same old game we play together
No more
Time will pass we'll still remember
No more
But tonight this game is over
No more
Strangers in the night forever

No more!

From a voice that breaks the awkward silence
No more!
Never heard so loud before
Made the same mistakes a thousand times
Never meant to be like this so I say
No more tonight
