

Dragonforce, Revolution Deathsquad

Flying over darkened skies the battle will call
Destiny is calling we'll be out of the storm
And the world falls under the starlight
Shining from heavens below

Ride the wings of pain and sorrow searching for more
Gliding on the wings of sorrow, just never before
And the stars fall on the horizon
Onwards and up through the pain

Ride the wind and fight the demon, steel shining bright
Standing together forever onwards, flames burning strong

Hot wind in hell of pain and sorrow now and never onwards
We stare into the dawn of a new world

[Pre-chorus]

Cry out for the fallen heroes lost some time ago
In our minds they still live on when the sands of time are gone

[Chorus]

Rise over shadow mountains blazing with power!
Crossing valleys, endless tears, in unity we stand
Far and wide across the land, the victory is ours
On towards the gates of reason
Fight for the truth and the freedom, Gloria

Searching through the memories to open the door
Living on the edge of life like never before
When the crowd chants under the moonlight
Facing their fears all the same

Hell is spilling open wide enough for the core
All this time we're allied to the angels before
And the world cries out from the silence
Lost in the voices unknown

I deny the force of evil, cries into the night
Living before in the seas of darkness, now they're all gone
Out from the shadows storming on the wings of revelations
Your soul will feel no mercy behind the door

Hold on for the morning after never to let go
When the fire's burning strong
And the time to try and hold on

[Chorus]

[Pre-chorus]
