

Dragpipe, The Cruise

I'll always waste my life away
Sitting on the couch and watch TV
I didn't have any drugs today
Or yesterday
Tomorrow's just another song
I got no money, my veins are gone
Waiting for the bad news
To come my way
So i can take my life away
I'm just waiting for the bad news
This is the fucking cruise (x2)
Laying on my back, i stare at the sun
Looking for the right words
To eat the gun
I always thought that i would run
Just for fun
I'm just waiting for the bad news
This is the fucking cruise (x2)
I'd always wait my life away
Sitting on the floor and watch the floor
I didn't have any help today
Or yesterday
Tomorrow's just another waste
Got no reason to even stay
Wait for the bad news
To come and play
Come and play
I'm just waiting for the bad news
This is the fucking cruise (x2)
Life is a fucking cruise (x4)
