

Drake, Too Good (feat. Rihanna)

I don't know how to talk to you

I don't know how to ask you if you're ok.
My friends always feel the need to tell me things
Seems like they're just happier than these days
These days

I don't know how to talk to you
I don't know how to be there when you need me
It feels like the only time you see me
Is when you turn your head to the side and look at me differently

And last night I think I lost my patience
Last night I got high has the expectations
Last night I came to a realization
And I hope you can take it
I hope you can take it
I'm too good for you
I'm way too good to you
You take my love for granted
I just don't understand it
No, I'm too good for you
I'm way too good to you
You take my love for granted
I just don't understand it

[Riri]

I don't know how to talk to you
I just know I found myself getting lost with you
Lately you just make me work too hard for you
Got me on flights overseas and I still can't across t you
And last night I think I lost my patience
Last night I got high has the expectations
Last night I came to a realization
And I hope you can take it
