

Drama Escort, When You Go

I don't have a future
Coz I don't have any dreams that I can reach
And I can't help but feel useless
I need to learn how to be brave

When you go
Will you know
How to live without me
Will you still think about me
When you go

Will you know
How to breathe without me
Will you still dream about me

I want you
To have you
To keep you forever
But I'm naive to believe I can
Coz the other guys out there
Are so much better
