

Dreadful Shadows, Buried Again

I can't drive my thoughts away

- The depths of heaven haunt me
- And I see no excuse for my mistakes

□I'll never see the sun again

- The clouds will darken everything inside
- No way to get me out of this or to return

□The wind will blow my face away

- No love will last, just endless calm
- Tomorrow is the strangest word for me

□Soon I'll be forgotten

- I'm drifting weightlessly in time, all alone
- I was suffocated by your kiss, I'm buried again
