

Dream Evil, Bad Dreams

I dreamt I woke up in the middle of the night
My heart was pounding like a drum
The world was coloured, but I was in black and white
It was the weirdest of all dreams

That I have had, a dream so bad
I must be going mad!

Bad dreams, bad dreams, bad bad dreams

And then I woke up, at least that's what I thought
Things would be normal again
Opened my eyes and saw right through me in the mirror
I must be going insane!

That I have had, a dream so bad
I must be going mad!

Bad dreams, bad dreams, bad bad dreams
Bad dreams, bad dreams, bad bad dreams
Bad bad dreams, bad dreams, bad bad dreams, bad bad dreams
