

Dream Street, I Say Yeah

Alright...Yeah...(Alright)...

I know that you know that I can't stop watchin' you
I feel it, believe me, I know you feel it too
Oh-oh-yeah.

There's somethin' about me that you don't know about I'm someone that somehow you seem to be without.

Is it so hard to see that I'm not invisible?
Feel like a fly on the wall!

So if I get a little crazy
Look a little spacey
Blowing kisses your way
Will you think I'm ok?
Set the sun on fire
Scream a little higher
Hold you in the moonlight
I say yeah if you say alright!

yeah, alright

I might not be special, not like your superman
But livin' and lovin', well that I super-can
It's not so complicated, not reinvent the wheel
Just let me know how you feel.

So if I get a little crazy
Look a little spacey
Blowin' kisses your way
Will you think I'm okay?
Set the sun on fire
Scream a little higher
Hold you in the moonlight
I say yeah, if you say alright

oh, oh, yeah

If you say alright (Alright)
Then I will say ok (OK)
I will take your hand
And we can fly away (We can fly away)
No matter where we go
You will always hear me say, yeah...

Oh-oh oh...(I say yeah)...whoa-oh-whoa, baby...(Alright)...alright

So if I get a little crazy
Look a little spacey
Blowin' kisses your way
Will you think I'm okay?
Set the sun on fire
Scream a little higher
Hold you in the moonlight
I say yeah if you say alright

Set the sun on fire
Scream a little higher
Hold you in the moonlight
I say yeah if you say alright.....
