

Dream Street, Kissing You Goodbye(Full Version) doesn't matter much what you will say cause now I'm leaving you now anyway (ah oh) gunna have some fun just for a change and you can't do a thing to make me stay Oo Oo ya gunna throw away your picture and the ring cause they don't mean a single thing i just wanna have some fun with someone so bye bye baby bye bye kissing you goodbye, starting a new life now i know that finally im done and through with you you are not the one, who can give me all kissing you goodbye, no more needs to try now i know exactly what i wanna do with my life you will not be there, cause we have nothing more to share

i have never been so satisfied with anything before in my life no no leavin you was the best thing i could do im so glad we are thru

chorus

finally i can see were never meant to be

chorus

kissing you goodbye...
