

Dream Street, Take Me Back Home (Greg)

I'm reachin' deeper down inside of me
For answers, to questions, honesty.
I feel like I've fallen from a state of grace;
I know that I can run from my mistakes

(CHORUS)

Where do you go when you've gone too far?
You open up your arms
I wanna believe that love has the heart
To take me home
Take me back home, take me back home
Take me back home, take me back home

Forgiveness, a sweet kiss is all I need from you
So hold me, 'cause only you can pull me through.
I'm fighting, I'm crying, calling out your name
I wanna live a life that shows a change...

(CHORUS)

(Where do you go?) When the lies have consumed you
So thick you can hardly pull through (Where do you go?) When you don't recognize your face?
You pray for redemption day...

I know that I can run from my mistakes...

Where do you go when you've gone too far?
You open up your arms
I wanna believe that love has the heart
To take me home
Take me back home

Where do you go when you've gone too far? (take me back home)
Open up your arms (take me back home)
I wanna believe that love has the heart (to take me home)
To take, take, take me back home
Take me back home,
take me back home (take me back home, take me back home)

(take me back home) Take me back home (yeah)
