Dream Theater, The Test That Stumped Them Al

She can't stop pacing She never felt so alive Her thoughts are racing Set on overdrive

It takes a village
This she knows is true
They're expecting her
And she's got work to do

He helplessly stands by It's meaningless to try As he rubs his red-rimmed eyes He says I've never seen her get this bad

Even though she seems so high He knows that she can't fly and when she falls out of the sky He'll be standing by

She was raised in a small midwestern town By a charming and eccentric loving father She was praised as the perfect teenage girl And everyone thought highly of her

And she tried everyday With endless drive To make the grade Then one day She woke up to find The perfect girl Had lost her mind

Once barely taking a break Now she sleeps the days away She helplessly stands by It's meaningless to try All she wants to do is cry No one ever knew she was so sad

Cause even though she gets so high And thinks that she can fly She will fall out of the sky But in the face of misery She found hopefulness Feeling better She had weathered This depression

Much to her advantage She resumed her frantic pace Boundless power Midnight hour She enjoyed the race </lyrics>

== III. War Inside My Head == {{Song|Live At Budokan (2004)|Dream Theater|star=Green}} &It;|yrics>
Napalm showers
Showed the cowards
We weren't there to mess around

Through heat exhaustion

And mind distortion
A military victory mounted on innocent ground

Hearing voices from miles away Saying things never said Seeing shadows in the light of the day Waging a war inside my head

Years and years of Bloodshed and warfare Our mission was only to get in and kill

A free vacation Of palmtrees and shrapnel Trading innocence for permanent psychotic hell

Hearing voices from miles away Saying things never said Seeing shadows in the light of the day Waging a war inside my head

Feeling strangers staring my way Reading minds never read Tasting danger with each word I say Waging a war inside my head </lyrics>

== IV. The Test That Stumped Them All == {{Song|Live At Budokan (2004)|Dream Theater|star=Green}} & t;|yrics>
Standing in the darkness
Waiting for the light
The smell of pure adrenaline
Burning in the night

Random blinding flashes Aiming at the stage Intro tape begins to roll Igniting sonic rage

Still they keep me between these hollow walls Hoping to find in me The answers to the test that stumped them all

"The boy is simply crazy Suffering from delusions We honestly think that maybe He might need an institution

He lives in a world of fiction And really could use some help We have just the place to fix him To save him from himself"

Curled up in the darkness Searching for the light The smell of stale sweat and shit Streaming through the night

Random urine testing Pills red, pink and blue Counseling and therapy Providing not a clue

Still they keep me between these hollow walls

Hoping to find in me The answers to the test that stumped them all

"We can't seem to find the answers He seemed such a clear cut case We cannot just let him leave here And put all this work to waste

Why don't we try shock treatment It really might do some help We have just the tools to fix him To save him from himself" &It;/lyrics>

== V. Goodnight Kiss == {{Song|Live At Budokan (2004)|Dream Theater|star=Green}} <|yrics> Goodnight kiss in your nightgown Lavender in your bed So innocent as you lie down Sweet dreams that run through your head

Are you lonely without Mommy's love? I want you to know I'd die for that moment You're just a poor girl Afraid of this cruel world Taken away from it all

It's been 5 years to the day and My tainted blood's still the same I can't help acting this way and Those bastard doctors are gonna pay

I'm so lonely without baby's love I want you to know I'd die for one more moment I'm just a poor girl Afraid of this cruel world Taken away from it all </lyrics>

== VI. Solitary Shell == {{Song|Live At Budokan (2004)|Dream Theater|star=Green}} <|yrics> He seemed no different from the rest Just a healthy normal boy His mama always did her best And he was daddy's pride and joy

He learned to walk and talk on time But never cared much to be held And steadily he would decline Into his solitary shell

As a boy he was considered somewhat odd Kept to himself most of the time He would daydream in and out of his own world But in every other way he was fine

He's a Monday morning lunatic Disturbed from time to time Lost within himself In his solitary shell

A temporary catatonic Madman on occasion

When will he break out Of his solitary shell

He struggled to get through his day He was helplessly behind He poured himself onto the page Writing for hours at a time

As a man he was a danger to himself Fearful and sad most of the time He was drifting in and out of sanity But in every other way he was fine

He's a Monday morning lunatic Disturbed from time to time Lost within himself In his solitary shell

A momentary maniac With casual delusions When will he be let out Of his solitary shell </lyrics>

== VII. About To Crash (Reprise) == <lyrics> I'm alive again The darkness far behind me I'm invincible Despair will never find me

I feel strong I've got a new sense of elation Boundless energy Euphoria fixation

Still it's hard to just get by It seems so meaningless to try When all I want to do is cry Who would ever know I felt so sad

Even though I get so high I know that I will never fly And when I fall out of the sky Who'll be standing by

Will you be standing by </lyrics>

== VIII. Losing Time/Grand Finale == <lyrics> She dresses in black everyday She keeps her hair simple and plain She never wears makeup But no one would care if she did anyway

She doesn't recall yesterday Faces seem twisted and strange But she always wakes up Only to find she'd been miles away

Absence of awareness Losing time A lapse of perception Losing time Wanting to escape She had created a way to survive She learned to detach from herself A behavior that kept her alive

Hope in the face of our human distress Helps us to understand the turbulence deep inside That takes hold of our lives Shame and disgrace over mental unrest Keeps us from saving those we love The grace within our hearts And the sorrow in our souls Deception of fame Vengeance of war Lives torn apart Losing oneself Spiraling down Feeling the walls closing in A journey to find The answers inside Our illusive mind
