Dreamaker, Take Me Higher

Music: Albert Maroto Lyrics: Elisa C.Martin

I will look for the perfection Making your sweet heart smile again The simple things as the raindrops Give a new sense to this place

Our feet don't touch the floor Our minds feeling the call There's something wild If we cross the door We'll never stop

Take me higher give me your hand As the fire we'll rise again You're falling asleep inside of me Shaking your wings There are no words only our breath

When winds take the forest in their paws Universe is as still as all my bones

In the spiral we made Around the fire today Tell me why should I cry for you? Music in the air Your blood is flowing for me Take me higher making me dream
