

DreamDoll, Misunderstood

Uh

Can I talk my shit

Can I holla at y'all for a minute

You think you know Dream, but you have no idea

So can I break down how I did it

The credit cards chargin', swipe em regardless

The project heat, could barely breathe in the apartment

You grow up like this, it's only right to be heartless

You gotta learn quick, take a shot, or be the target

You know I'm gon pop it

Same way I pop shit

End up doin 55 years like my pops is

I can't do 55 years in the projects

Gotta make it out this, gotta find a route quick

Need me a [?], some fits, jewels, and a whip

Before I get any of it, I need some ass and some tits

I ain't ashamed of it, I learned to gain from it

Double Ds, DreamDoll, made my name from it

Learned to gain from it, how the snakes suck you

How the streets got no love but they will fuck you

Fuck that, I got [?], so I struck back

I don't believe in bad luck, so where the bucks at

This is for the family, this is for the Grammys

This is for everybody that misunderstand me

Dream

Let's talk about it, I been about it, they asking for me

Bitches don't even eat breakfast but be after some tea

Whether it happened, didn't happen, or it happened to be

But if my name is in your mouth, then use it accurately

I get applause from the [?], they be clappin' for me

And my accountant will calculate what the fraction will be

I'm from the bad girls club, I brought the ratchet with me

The Shade Room can't imagine what the caption will be

It ain't no cappin and you love it

The Bronx'll make you thug it

I ain't pussy but I bet your favorite rapper wanna fuck it

Ain't nothin to fuck with, I'm out here on the grind

Got a mother to support, got a father doin time

Lil brothers that I treat like they my son, they gotta shine

And I'm a Pisces but I really think that dollar is my sign

Is she a beauty or a bully

She sellin records or she out here selling pussy

My life is crazy, you can't understand me fully

I'm on the edge, [?] tryna push me or pull me

(OK, let's go)

You know regardless, I go the hardest, I'm more than an artist

I ain't never asked for a favor or beg for your pardon

Been the motherfucking star since you seen me at [?]

Once you sell out [?], it's the Barclay or Garden

And if you want it, I got it

Lil engine that could

Is she a misfit

Or just misunderstood

I'm just a soul whose intentions are good

Oh Lord, please don't let me be misunderstood
