

Dredg, Juggernaut

&lt;You're such a genius in mind
That normal life was much beyond the thoughts inside
Too blind to see in their own time
But viewed now as a genius mind

Such a genius in mind
That normal life was casted by the voice inside
See now what you've done for me
What you did years ago now grows in me

Such a genius in mind
That normal life was looked as fault and then denied
Too blind to see in their own time
What was done years ago will always thrive

You shouldn't have tried to move
You shouldn't have tried to see
You shouldn't have tried to move
You shouldn't have tried to see
You shouldn't have tried to move
You shouldn't have tried to see
You shouldn't have tried to move
You shouldn't have tried to see
Fuck

Such a genius in mind
That normal life was much beyond the thoughts inside
Too blind to see, in their own time
But viewed now as a genius mind

Such a genius in mind
That normal life was casted by the voice inside
See now what you've done for me
What you did years ago now grows in me

Such a genius in mind
That normal life was looked as fault and then denied
Too blind to see in their own time
What we did years ago will always thrive

You're such a genius in mind
That normal life was looked as fault and then denied
Too blind to see in their own time
What you did years ago will always thrive

Such a genius in mind
That normal life was much beyond the thoughts inside
Too blind to see in their own time
What you did years ago will always thrive

Call me
Life wasn't to be this way
Feel, feel
Call me
Life it wasn't to be this way
Feel, feel

You shouldn't have tried to move
You shouldn't have tried to see
You shouldn't have tried to move
You shouldn't have tried to see
You shouldn't have tried to move
You shouldn't have tried to see
You shouldn't have tried to move

You shouldn't have tried to see
