Dredg, The Warbler

There's a self centered place that spins in the space where greed and envy rule...

and the stubborness of opinions make everyone a fool everyones a fool, everyones a fool.

It's where attitude and egos shine and war is so fine tuned, it's so finely tuned, it's so fine tuned.

It's where trust is void and hates employed this idea(psyche) must change soon it must change soon...
