

Drew Seeley, Don't Close Your Eyes

she got a smile just the wrong side of happy too many times she has been let down I tried my best to reach her but I guess I'm just too late now she's heard it all before too many times I'm sure but girl you can't ignore the world outside your door

don't close your eyes
your missin' a good thing
stay on this ride
just one more time
it's too early to say goodbye (say goodbye)

she sees the world through the eyes of her mother theres always room room to criticize every man a potential lover every girl a demon in disguise she thinks she knows your game like every boys the same like every boys to blame well bay it's a shame

stay on this ride

this poison in your veins will make you let it out I wanna scream and shout it's not what life's about

stay on this ride
