this still life
it looks like
motion is gaiting unexpectedly one judgment
will define
recycled emotions
underlined vindictively misplaced aggression and a half-hearted smile give regret a whole new meaning replace transition
with a full lb
of style
to try and read
what's on the ceiling
living in fear of a future this rares denial.
Bringing back the dead
infected affection
falling apart from the seams of your heart is this cycle.
this still light.
It looks bright
showcasing your love on filtered, so fair
these judgments
create criiiiiimes.
forcing the witness eyes
a blank stare revolting obsession
the other's denial
push at the knees before kneeling No definition
Not even worth wile
apart from forgetting living in fear of a future that rare's denial Bringing back the dead
infected affection
