

Drop Dead, Gorgeous, I Want To Master Life And

I would do for you what you did to me even kill
but to you I'm just a mirror well sometimes mirrors shatter the shrapnel becomes deadly it surrounds you with no escape and you can't save her like a ghost
you slept in my bed
and I fell while you tore through my neck when I awoke you were already dead those eyes
I'll never forget
make your move take your time every pawn threatens your life go raise hell come up short no mercy is granted here best come clean kill your stride
keep your head cleanse your life cause you can't save her
and I fell while you tore through my neck
"I don't care what you do to her you won't find her body
I swear
I swear
in time the rain with every season will wash the bones down the river"
but to you I am just a mirror
well sometimes mirrors shatter
"I swear
I swear
you find her body"
death is upon all of us it comes in the shape of an angel
