

Drop N Harmony, It's Over

I can't take this no more
I'm tired of this shit
I mean
We try and try and try
It just ain't working out
I'm sorry babe
It's over

[Verse 1]
Here we go again
Fighting over who started the argument
Now why can't you and I just get along?
It's unfortunate
That's its hard for me to even give you a compliment
When all you do is bitch about what is wrong
I wish I didn't have to say

[Chorus]
It's over
but believe me girl, it's better this way
Too many second times around
Too many times we let each other down
It's over
I never meant for us to end up this way
And although it hurts like hell
I'd rather you save tomorrow for someone else

[Verse 2]
Now don't you get teary-eyed
And act in disbelief like its a big surprise
That one day you use to threaten to walk out on me
And then one day we'll both look back
And laugh at the stupid things that made us mad
And maybe decide to give our love yet another try
I wish oh I wish I didn't have to say

[Chorus]

[Bridge]
Don't you
Do you think I'm enjoying this
I'm trying not to cry
I've had it up to here
I'm tired of living in misery
And I hope that we could still be friends
Once we put aside all this bitterness
Cause I still care about you
Yes... I wish I didn't have to say

[Chorus]
