

Dropbox, Forgotten Song

For as long as I knew about the things they say
Ive wondered how long theyve been that way
They dont even know just what they need for Themselves
I felt I knew at the age of twelve

Nobody knows my pain
And no one sings in the rain
Nobodys hummin forgotten song
And no one really belongs

They say a real man can show how he feels
But when I try I just keep spinning my wheels
Something tells me I could be wrong
Lets sing together to the forgotten song

Nobody knows my pain
And no one sings in the rain
Nobodys hummin forgotten song
And no one really belongs

As I walk along I slip
And wonder where I went a stray
But Im gonna find my way
While we sing forgotten songs
Remembering where we went wrong
But were gonna find our way

Nobody knows my pain
And no one sings in the rain
Nobodys hummin forgotten song
And no one really belongs
Nobody knows my pain
And no one sings in the rain
Nobodys hummin forgotten song
And no one really belongs
