

Dropline, Maybe I'm The One

look at the mercury man in his shoes talking a lot
but he's still got the blues
do you like his music

say i'd be better if I was like him what kinda stuck up world are you in keeping it out with an attitude

but why
does the sun come over me
but why
do I find it hard to breathe

Chorus:
maybe i'm the one
the one with the attitude
and maybe i'm the one
it's an honest mistake

look at my head
and you tell me it's wrong you give an answer
that doesn't belong
ah well i'm not so foolish I know i'm not so foolish

we connect
but we can't relate taking your sunshine out of my rain

[Chorus]

I stare at the sun
there's a cloud hanging over you

oh yeah

and I know it hurts
when things are not so clear oooohhhh

cause it's not too dark to see
do I find it hard to separate you
do I really have to know these things
but why
did I get here

[Chorus]

and i'm not the kind to take advantage and I know I know I know I know I know
