

Dropout Year, As You Wish

Have you noticed the way I notice you, the way the sky reflects of your eyes, a greenish shade of blue

there's no need to wear make up when you wake up and i'm where you are, I swear i'll never let you go and I will wait up, all night long I will stay up with you, to say the words it takes to get you through.

and when it comes to friendship, I have a small confession, a common misconception, so here's your chance

there's no need to wear make up when you wake up and i'm where you are, I swear i'll never let you go

all night long i'll keep the stereo on and we will play this song until the break of dawn.

there's no need to wear make up when you wake up and i'm where you are, I swear i'll never let you go and so I will wait up, all night long I will stay up with you, and say the words it takes to get you through.

now I stand an honest man. scared to death with my heart in your hands. now you stand with my heart
