

Drown, Alone In A Dirty World

This is a dark world
This is a cheap sick world
This world is tattered and torn
So why was I born
Into this world
Infected dirty world
This poor and desperate world
Wasn't black and blue to her
What did I do to her
Welcome to my world
Where I have nothing
I have noone
I am only alone
I am alone
You are a beautiful safe girl
Wish you could heal this place, girl
You are untouchable
But I'm unlovable
Down in my world
Where I have nothing
I have noone
I am only alone
I am alone
I wish there was a safer place
For me
I have nothing
I have noone
I am only alone
I am alone
