

Drown, The Selfish Ones

Tonight is just another night
I know I've told you this before
But the needs I have hurt inside
And I'm tired of being ignored.
'Cause there's only so many times that I'm gonna say it,
Before I go out and get my only fix
I'm tired of the way you ask me to live and I Hate nights like this.

Are you listening? Are you listening?
Are you?
'Cause I need...I Need.

Remember me? I'm not afraid to cross any line
I run on Instinct and Desire
Feel my breath as I breathe down on you
Don't challenge a man on fire.
'Cause I'm an animal, I'm not here to deny
I'm a Fiend, a fucking junky, and
I need to be I
I'm lonely and I need my fix god Damn I hate nights like this!

Are you listening? Are you even listening?
'Cause I, I don't think you're listening
Are you listening?
I know she's listening...I know she's listening
I know you're listening.
I need my fix
(I'm tired of the way you ask me to live)
(I'm tired of the way you ask me to live)
I need my fix
(I'm tired of the way you ask me to live)
(I'm tired of the way you ask me to live)
I need my fix.
