

Drowning Fish, Prom Night

Prom night

I couldn't find someone to go with

Broken-hearted I went by myself

Then I saw her

Standing alone across the room

Shining brighter than a full moon

Yah she was so beautiful

Walked over and asked her if she wanted to dance

She smiled so lovely, and then said yes

Dancing and laughing, having so much fun

Dancing and laughing and falling in love

I couldn't believe it

You were just what I always dreamed of

How could this happen, to a guy like me

And then they turned the lights down low

And the music played real slow

The touch of you took my breath away

Holding you tightly, in a warm caress

I've never been so close to heaven

As precious as a swan gliding through a pond

That night we both had fallen in love
