

Drowning Fish, The Long Goodbye

I am
Still here
Do you
Remember
My how
The years passed
I should
Be going now

But not just yet
I'm not through Remembering
Me and you
Through frozen frames
Of the lost before
The tale is told
Called "The Long Goodbye";

Everything has changed
Left me abandoned
So far away from home
Forgotten and alone

In your eyes
I found my sight
In your heart
You gave me life
I was so in love
With your everything
I wanted then
To never leave

And I am
Still here
Do you
Remember
My how
The years passed
I should
Be going now

Everything has changed
So far away from home
Forgotten and alone
