

Drowning Fish, There For You

Hardened hearts
Slabs of stone
Cracked and cold
How could love never fill this
Never fill this home
Don't hold it inside
Tell yourself your fine
It's okay to cry
And all I want is to be there for you
Deliver you from all you've been through
Change your darkness to a starlit night
Dry your tears
I'll always be by your side

Wounded hearts
Hope crumbled
You walk this world alone
A stranger revealed in the person
Your whole life you'd known
You feel angry
Empty and grief
Turn, and you'll see me

Cuz all I want is to be there for you
Deliver you from all you've been through
Drown your sorrows, and rescue your life
Heal your tears
Forever stand by your side
