

Drowning Fish, Wish This Were A Love Song

You fill
My heart
With love
I want
You want
Me not

It hurts so bad
To know that you're in love
To think of
Her every day and night
And know that
She'll never feel the same about you

I try
Not to Want you

My heart
Blinds my Mind's view

And maybe
If I was more tall
And darker
And a little more handsome
You'd want me
And this would be a love song instead
