

Drowning Pool, Mute

Shouldn't have that far to go
The less you think the more you know
It seems the dream is impossible (3)
Never made a difference so why should you
Promise me you won't look at me

There's nothing left here to talk about (3)
There's nothing left
There's nothing left

No matter how hard I try
The lonely one refuses to die
Someday I will be a better man (3)
Never made a difference so why should I
Promise me you won't look at me

There's nothing left here to talk about
