

Drowning Pool, Walls

And now it's over ,
And here i sit all cold and alone...
You know i can't find my way through one more day ,
Now you're gone!
When you left me here , all you left me with ,
Save you're it's emptiness nothing else could do!
Now i'm building walls again!
Building walls again!
Shutting you out from the inside , brick by brick!
Brick by brick!
This time ,
li know nothing gonna change your mind...
I can see that way ,
It's written plain , across your eyes!
When you left me here , all you left me with ,
Save you're it's emptiness nothing else could do!
Now i'm building walls again!
Building walls again!
Shutting you out from the inside , brick by brick!
Brick by brick!
And now i know , all this will , all of this will change...
And now i know , all this will , all of this will change...
All of this will change!
Change!
When you left me here , all you left me with ,
Save you're it's emptiness nothing else could do!
Now i'm building walls again!
Building walls again!
Shutting you out from the inside , brick by brick!
Brick by brick!
