

Dru Hill, I'm Wondering

Two o'clock and I'm all alone
Callin' you on the phone
Wanna come over but you ain't home
Get in my car and start to drive
Yes, I gotta take a ride
Cuz I feel lonely inside but
Then I ran into your girlfriend
Know she is your best friend
And if we mess around our love will end
But I gotta take a sneak peek
Cuz the freak in me is beating me
Telling me to creep, see

[1] - I'm just wondering if you really know what's goin' on
Do you really have a clue
'Bout what I'm gonna do to you, hey

I'm just wondering if you really know what's goin' on
Do you really have a clue
'Bout what I'm gonna do to you

Now that we're here alone
Had to unplug the phone
Just in case she calls
She'll think I'm not home
I had something else to do
But now I'm here with you
What I had to do has turned into you
She thinks that I'm faithful
Cuz her ride is paid for
And I bought a crib for her and her shorty
Forbidden fruit is tasty
But you gotta lace me I'm shady
But you ain't worth my baby
