

Drugstore, Alive

I feel the time is coming
I walk into the night
Oh, I don't mind if the clock is turning
I'm going to the other side
You either die or you keep on burning
And I...and I am burning

I walked along longdistance
I'm feeling sore inside
I don't care if the sky is falling
I never get to see the light
You either die or you keep on burning
And I...and I am burning
