

Drugstore, Devil

You turn your back on your own flesh
You got a piece of me
You were so young, so rich
But I saw you with that mirror
Right between your feet

The world swings around you
But I could never find you
D-D-D-Devil

Never mind the way you bought
Acres of land
I saw two blonds, young girls
And every single one
You could lay your hands on

The world swings around you
But I could never find you
D-D-D-Devil
D-D-D-Devil

Extra Verses :

Theres nothing left of you now
You might as well be dead
You are so old
And so sick
The jokes you tell me
They make me sad
The world swings around you
Daddy
I could never find you
Daddy
Youre a d-d-d-devil
