

Drugstore, Everything A Girl Should Have

I could buy me a castle in a country spot
And I could have a house made out of gold
All the things
A girl can have
Have got me feeling so cold
Just thought Ill let you know...
I could spend the summer in the South of France
And pretend that life was just one joke
Oh to have, or to have not?
Have got me feeling alone
Just thought Id let you know...
My life, glitter and shine
My heart, star spangled cold
If only I could have
One night in your arms
Then Ill have it all
I could buy me a diamond and a new guitar
And I could have the longest string of pearls
All the things
A girl should have
Have got me feeling so cold
Just thought Id let you know...
And I could spend my whole life in a crystal bed
Or I could travel round and round the world
Oh to have, or to have not?
Have got me feeling alone
I Thought Id let you know...
My life, glitter and shine
My heart, star-spangled cold
If only I could have
One night in your arms
Then Ill have it all
I could buy me a castle in a country spot...
