

Drugstore, Under The Moon

Promises of a good life
And I'm still waiting
The weather changes
Like you do
I keep looking in second hand stores
For something new
And I wanna scream
How I wish I could be someone you'd choose
But I'm not complaining
I'm just under the moon
I'm not complaining
I'm just under...
Supersonic lovers
Walk by my window
I change the song
But I can't change you
I see a storm in the pale blue sky
But the pale blue sky is you
I'm not complaining
I'm just under the moon
I'm not complaining
I'm just under moon
