

Dub War, Armchair Thriller

it's late at night an am alone ain't got nobody to walk me home am being pursued
predators are stalking
so i increase
my pace of walking
just then am rushed
am being grabbed
am being pushed
am being dragged
this is no game
my life's at stake
an they won't
stop even if i drop
oi leave it out

this is the place where i was born inside this mind i'm being taunted as a madman when people say am living wrong an if doing right is doing wrong then i just got to be alone 2 much of us going down in the field cause we ain't got a shield an if doing right is wrong i guess am wrong
