

Dubstar, And When You Laugh

And when you laugh
I'm home
And know that when you laugh
I feel like I'm a better man
Listening to every word
Forgetting every lie
I've heard
Only when you laugh
I belong

And when you smile
I play along
To every weak joke
And mind game
That you choose to play
And don't believe abandoning
Or warring every girl may bring
When every time you smile
I'm yours
Smiling too

These are the days when wars are won
These are the days when the world has begun
To live
Together
Through gritted teeth forever

And when you cry
I am wrong
Every time you cry
I end up
Making other plans
And when all the stick I take
She brings every claim I make
It's every time you cry
It's crazy
I'm still yours

These are the days when wars are won
These are the days when the world has begun
These are the days when wars are won
These are the days when the world has begun
To live
Together
Through gritted teeth forever

I'm still yours
