

Dubstar, Anyway

I'm moving out today I've nowhere else to stay so how many friends can I count on now?

And it's easier to stay
But we know it happened anyway
so what's the point?

The television's mine
But you'll be keeping the cutlery and your awful bed this time

And it's easier to stay
But we know it happened anyway
so why pretend that this time we'll fight But it's really your right

It's easier to stay but I know you've done it anyway I've found a place to
No more words to the show
So I'll leave you the keys this time

And it's easier to stay
Yes it's easier to stay You knew I'd hate you but you did it anyway
It's easier to stay
but you've done it anyway
So what's the point?
There is no point...
