

Dubstar, Goodbye

Lying in darkness I'm lonely and confused
I try to feel bitter
I know that I've been used
Words so close to me
A moment to forget
Touching me now leaves me empty and then regret

Goodbye to you

Conviction, faith and logic are properties you lack People round you suffer when you shut your eyes turn your back
You're not as I imagine
I'm lonely and confused
Our bodies never tingled
Our minds they never fused

Goodbye to you...
