

Dubstar, The Self Same Thing

If you tell me what you're thinking
You see differences between us
You're wrong
It's the self same thing
There's a pain that you've been feeling
And you think that I'm ignoring
You're wrong
It's the same thing between us

We are the same
It's the self same thing
We are the same
It's the self same thing

I'm moody in the mornings
And my friends are very boring
What a shame
It's the self same thing
Your conversation's tired
And I know that you've been fired
It's a shame
It's the same thing between

We are the same
It's the self same thing
We are the same
It's the self same thing

I hope one day, you'll understand
We've an equal stake in all we've planned
So put aside the divide you see
I'm a girl, you're a boy
It's so simple to see so

We are the same
It's the self same thing
We are the same
It's the self same thing

We are the same
It's the self same thing
We are the same
It's the self same thing

We are the same
It's the self same thing
We are the same
It's the self same thing
It's the self same thing
