

Dubstar, This Is My Home

It amounts to nothing,
You said
And the pain should recede
Each day
But you can take my life
Before I'd agree
That to let you in
Is the right thing for me
It's more than I can give

And if you ask me
I will oblige
Before you get me
Agree that

This is my home,
You will not forget
This is my home,
You can not forget
And no one else
Can take away what's mine
Again
This is my home,
You can not forget

This is my home,
You will not forget
This is my home,
You can not forget
And no one else
Can take away what's mine
Again
This is my home,
You can not forget

This is my home
You can not forget.
