

Dubstar, Victoria

Here you come
A twenties mom
With no one else to speak
You made your choice
We heard your voice
And now we all can laugh

This is where I stand
On all the things you've planned
This is your
Victoria
We're in for you
This is your
Victoria
We're in for you this time

She holds your hand
Your cash
And time
For twenty years or more
You wanted this
You wanted this
And now
You are a bore

This is where I stand
On all the things you've planned
This is your
Victoria
We're in for you
This is your
Victoria
We're in for you this time

This is where I stand
On all the things you've planned
This is your
Victoria
We're in for you
This is your
Victoria

Victoria

We're in for you this time
Time
