

Duck Daffy, You And Me

This song I sing
Is between you and me
This song will never die
It will live in the sky

chorus:

The rain is pouring from the evil sky that allways rains on me
But you'll be there shining in all eternity
The doors are open, and they allways will for both of you and me

The rain is gone
Its far far away
But don't leave me
I've come to be

chorus:

The rain is pouring from the evil sky that allways rains on me
But you'll be there shining in all eternity
The doors are open, and they allways will for both of you and me

chorus:

The rain is pouring from the evil sky that allways rains on me
But you'll be there shining in all eternity

chorus: (quiet)

The rain is pouring from the evil sky that allways rains on me
But you'll be there shining in all eternity
The doors are open, and they allways will for both of you and me
