

Ducky Boys, I'll Go Back

I don't know if I'm right or wrong, it's in my gut
I don't belong.
We turn out backs and away but stand together strong
I don't think it should end this way
I know I'll go back again one day
I know I'll go back again but when I couldn't say
I know I'll go back again one day
We once had back but walked away
Differences of another day
I was wrong I want you back
I want to carry on
Listen to what I say
Kick me down and in the face
Now I have to leave this place I was wrong
I want you back
I want to carry on
