

Duct Tape, Morning

So girls have their beauty salons and guys have home depot, girls play with our hearts for fun cause they know that we won't they talk about their guys and how they screw around with their hearts, we joke about it with our friends then cry in the dark

i worry that she cheats on me but that only seems fair cause once i find out the truth weather good or bad i'll dispair cause if she did that sucks and i'll have to bare that she lied but if she still stayed loyal i can see why she cried they say its not gonna rain till morning but its thunder storming and i'm worrying about you you've been out since 9 on the cold dark night and i know you see this starry sight, so don't forget me. please don't forget me i see you now and i cant open up myself cause all those other times you opened to someone else once i heard the news i didn't what to do should have thought twice should have been nice should have not thought it was you

and i know you see this starry sight,

i lied to you, am i fine to you, i lied for, i cried for you...(x4)

they say its not gonna rain till morning
and i know you see this starry sight,
cause i won't let you, forget me now
