

Dudley Perkins, Testin' Me

Bom bom bom bom...
Life is a test
And you're done
Testin' me
My God is stressin' me
My destiny
That perhaps so hard to see
In the morning when I rise
Every days on new surprises
Or blessing in the skies
And even though this world grow cold
As you always hold
A place in my heart
For me you gave me my star
Can this be
This world is history
Why must we be
So bloody crazy
God help me see
Is testin' me
This world is stressin' me
Yeah
C'mon
Testin' me (testin' me)
My God is stressin' me
My destiny
Meant that perhaps so hard to see
It's testin' me
It's testin' me
Why is it stressin' me
Yeah
And so it seems
Is fallin' apart at the seems
And all of my dreams will never ever be seen
Yeah
As I wipe the tears from my eyes
You ask me why do I cry
As the days go back more and more that
It's so heavy
No no
It's so heavy
It's testin me
Testin' me (testin me)
My god is stressin' me
My destiny
Meant that perhaps so hard to see
Bom bom bom bom...
